AROUND THE BANQUET TABLE

Greetings Madisonville Great Banquet Community!

The time has come to “go out quickly into the streets and alleys and into the highways and lanes” to find men and women who need Jesus in their lives or who need spiritual renewal and invite them to the Great Banquet. Yes, it is Great Banquet time again and the 2013 Spring teams have been selected and will soon begin their Monday night meetings in preparation for their respective weekends. There will be one Men’s weekend and two Women’s weekends, and there are four prison/jail weekends planned for this spring. It is very important that the Community keep these teams and their weekends covered in prayer. As always included on the 72 hour prayer chart, James 5:16b says, “The prayer of a righteous man (woman) is powerful and effective”. When prayers from a righteous person are offered fervently to God, He will respond in a way that best fits His good purposes for those guests who attend the weekends.

I would like to thank everyone who supported each of the 2012 Fall weekends through his/her service, food, agape, financial support, prayers, letters, etc. The men and women who were loved on during the church and prison/jail weekends were truly blessed as well as those who served on the teams. It never ceases to amaze me how the Community comes through when there is a need.

This past fall we began using our “simple-to-use” battery-operated candles (NOT!) at our Candlelight services. We plan to invest in another type of battery candle for the spring where no training is required to operate it (HA!) and it has better illumination. I want to thank everyone for persevering through this time of change but we all know that regardless of what we use for light during the Candlelight service, God’s light will shine, through us, to the guests.

This January, there are both Men’s and Women’s Great Banquet teams going to Jamaica to serve on the start-up of the Jamaica Great Banquet Movement. This is Lampstand Ministries’ breakthrough into international Great Banquet movements. Couples from various Great Banquet Communities throughout the United States will be united together to serve as team members on these inaugural men and women Jamaica Weekends in late January. Our Community will be represented on these teams by Jim and Ruth Hendrix. In addition to serving on their respective teams, they will also be involved in missions work while there. I would like to thank everyone who has provided financial support for our Community’s couple, and for the prayers being lifted up for this mission. Again, God will respond to our prayers in ways that best meets the needs of those team members and guests so that lives will be changed and blessed. Hallelujah!

I want to thank those Great Banquet Board members whose terms expired at the end of 2012. I truly enjoyed working with you and getting to know you. Your deep concern, dedication, and outpouring toward the Great Banquet Movement were exemplary and have not gone unnoticed, either by me, the Community, or God. I also want to thank First Presbyterian Church, First United Methodist Church, and other churches in the area for your continued support of the Madisonville Great Banquet Movement. I really believe that God intends for us to experience life together as children of God. Psalm 133:1 says “How wonderful it is, how pleasant, for God’s people to live together in harmony”! As we love unselfishly, share honestly, serve practically, give sacrificially, comfort sympathetically, and do all the other “one another” commands found in the New Testament, both on the weekends and every day of our lives, we will allow God to do His work in us from the inside out. I also thank everyone who continues to play a part in this Great Banquet Movement. I pray nothing but excellent health, prosperity, and peace upon each one of you as we continue together to share Jesus with others. God bless you all!

De Colores!
